

“

The means is redemptive. So doing what you're called to do actually saves you.”

Nathan Finnochio

Bible Verses:

Jonah 2:7-9

"When my life was fainting away, I remembered the Lord, and my prayer came to you, into your holy temple. Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their hope of steadfast love. But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Salvation belongs to the Lord!"

Jonah 2:7-9

Session 1:

We may have heard the story of Jonah before, but Nathan offers a different angle on his story throughout Module 3. In this first session, we're reminded that usually, when we think we're the ones doing the saving, God's really after our hearts. We're the ones He wants to save.

"Jonah thinks that because...God speaks to him and uses him and he hears God, he's a big deal."

01

What do you know about the story of Jonah?

02

What parts of Jonah's story do you identify with?

03

What preconceptions do you (or did you) have about "doing ministry?"

04

Have you ever tried to "save" the Church? What was the result?

NEXT STEPS:

Read through Jonah in preparation for the rest of the sessions in Module 3.
